WEDDING STATIONERY

Getting Started...

You said 'YES', you have a date, celebrant and venue booked, so now what?

Here comes the creative, fun part. Wedding Stationery.

You can have as much or as little as you need but as a guide we've put together a To-Do list and stationery items you may wish to consider

WEDDING STATIONERY TO-DO LIST

Pre Wedding:

Save the Dates
Wedding Invitations
RSVP cards
Wishing Well cards
Information Cards

On the Day

Place Cards
Menus
Gift Tags
Table Numbers
Order of Service
Seating Chart

Post Wedding

Thank you cards

8 to 12 months

- Organise the guest list
- Order Save the Dates
(remember it's usually one per couple or family, not per guest)

6 months

- Send Save the Dates
- Order Wedding Invitations & any other matching enclosures

2 to 4 months

- Send out Wedding Invitations
(For overseas & interstate guests you should consider sending at least 6 months before if you decided against Save the Dates)
- Organise your Bridal Shower with your besties

4 to 6 weeks

- Order any On the Day stationery items
(Chase up outstanding RSVPs. Seating plans can change right up to the last minute so we recommend leaving this item until around 2 weeks before)

After the Wedding

- Order and send Thank you cards
